

Process Technician

Description Responsibilities: · Perform machine start-up, shut-down, color changes, and any necessary processing changes to ensure that the machines are running at the proper efficiency and that the product is in conformance.

- Perform daily mold and machine PM's
- Verify that the machine cycle, cavitation, and set-up parameters are correct.
- Record performance of machines and any adjustments made.
- Communicate with the QA department to prevent any nonconforming product.
- Maintain machine cleanliness, and perform small mold, machine, and equipment repairs.
- Assist with, shift changes, logo changes, and machine repairs when possible.
- Perform any housekeeping duties as assigned.
- Assist on an as needed basis.
- Perform other duties as required.
- Establish new processes and refine current process as required.

Requirements Qualifications · Capable of reading, writing, and speaking English.

- Possess functional knowledge of injection molds, injection molding machines, injection molding processes, mold setups.
- Possess a minimum of three years of injection molding experience, including processing.
- Capable of training others as needed.
- Have experience changing molds.
- Have experience setting molds.
- Must be able to pass a background check and drug screen Physical demands of job include but are not limited to the following: · Capable of physical mobility including sitting, bending, twisting, standing, and lifting.
- Must be able to regularly lift and/or move up to 25 pounds
- Frequently lift and/or move up to 50 pounds
- Occasionally lift and/or move up to 100 pounds

Education High School Diploma or equivalent