

Production Operator

Purpose:

To run injection molding machines when required, inspect, package and perform post mold operations on produced product.

Responsibilities:

- Familiarize themselves with the quality requirements of each job that they are assigned.
- Visually inspect all products for conformance to quality standards when handling.
- Take and record product measurements when required.
- Communicate with the QA department to minimize any nonconforming product.
- Package product in predetermined method (written or verbal instructions)
- Understand the basic workings and safety features of all equipment and machinery that they are using.
- Maintain cleanliness in their work area.
- Perform any housekeeping duties as assigned by the Lead Operator, Foreman, or Acting Foreman.
- Follow all GMP practices.
- Assist in the training of other personnel as assigned.
- Perform other duties as required.

Job Requirements

Qualifications

- Capable of reading, writing, and speaking English.
- Have good manual dexterity.
- Have good eyesight (with corrective lenses is acceptable)
- Must be able to follow instructions, written and verbal.
- Possess functional knowledge of injection molds and injection molding machines.
- Capable of maintaining an attendance record within Company guidelines and working overtime as required.
- Capable of training others as needed.
- Must possess a strong commitment to the Company and to the production of quality product.
- Must be able to pass a background check and drug screen

Physical demands of job include but are not limited to the following:

- Capable of physical mobility including sitting, bending, twisting, standing, and lifting.
- Must be able to regularly lift and/or move up to 25 pounds
- Infrequently lift and/or move up to 50 pounds